

Advocating Through Uncertain Times: 5 Back-to-School Strategies Every IEP Parent Should Know, with Lisa Lightner

Friday, September 18th- 12:00pm-1:15pm, through the PEAL Center:

Whether your child has an IEP, a 504 Plan, or is in the process of being evaluated, this webinar will cover five practical advocacy strategies that can help you start the school year on the right foot. We'll discuss what's changed in the past 18 months, what parents should know and where to find information, how to communicate effectively with the school team, and what to do when things don't go as planned.

Register: <https://tfaforms.com/5229874>

Youth-Led Transition Planning and Financial Education in IEPs

Pennsylvania Assistive Technology Foundation is hosting a free webinar, Youth-Led Transition Planning and Financial Education in IEPs, on September 24, 2026, from 1:00 to 2:00 P.M. EST.

The PEAL Center will be providing information and guidance on how to prepare for a youth-led transition planning meeting.

Register:

https://us02web.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN\_A3mOo4SRTLW3HVVYDA4iyBw#/registration

PEAC & WCU College of Education and Social Work Conference 2026

Join Pennsylvania's Education for All Coalition (PEAC) and West Chester University College of Education and Social Work for The Power of We on November 7, 2026, at West Chester University in West Chester, PA. It will be an amazing day of information gathering, resource finding, family networking, and collaboration! Door prizes, raffles, breakfast & lunch.

Register: <https://www.zeffy.com/en-US/ticketing/peac-and-wcu-college-of-education-and-social-work-conference--2026>